OVERVIEW

As a Social Media Marketing Intern, I developed and executed a multi-channel digital strategy for Project C Foundation, a global non-profit dedicated to mental health awareness. Within 2 weeks, I was promoted to Team Lead, overseeing content creation, influencer collaborations, and ad campaigns across multiple platforms.

OBJECTIVES

- ✓ Increase brand visibility and engagement across Meta, LinkedIn, YouTube, TikTok, Reddit, and X (Twitter)
- ✓ Manage and scale 10+ mental health sister accounts, ensuring consistent messaging
- ✓ Leverage Meta Ads & Google Ad Grants to amplify impact
- ✓ Collaborate with mental health influencers to enhance credibility and reach

Ignoring Your Mental Health?

Here's What It Might Be Costing You.....

When your mind is overwhelmed, everything else suffers.

- ✗ Difficulty focusing at work
- ✗ More conflicts in relationships
- ✗ Feeling disconnected from loved ones

Your mind and body are connected - stress affects more than just your mood!

- ✗ Headaches & muscle tension
- ✗ Weakened immune system
- ✗ Heart & digestive issues

Bottling up emotions can lead to emotional exhaustion.

- ✗ Constant fatigue
- ✗ Difficulty sleeping
- ✗ Loss of motivation

Investing in your mental health = A healthier, happier YOU!

- ✓ Better focus & productivity
- ✓ Stronger relationships
- ✓ Emotional balance & self-confidence

Your mental health matters. Start prioritizing YOU today!

CAROUSEL

Do you know your boundaries?

Drawing-the-line

Boundaries protect your peace, energy and mental health.

3 Steps to Set healthy boundaries

- 1 Identify what makes you uncomfortable
- 2 Communicate your needs clearly and respectfully
- 3 Be consistent and firm in reinforcing your boundaries

Think about this:
What's one thing you need to say 'no' to more often?

What's one thing you'd say 'no' to?

Type something....

Boundaries are a form of self-love

Start small, and remember: it's okay to put yourself first.
